

Quinta das Bageiras Fogueira rosé 2019

The name Fogueira comes from the village where it all began for Quinta Das Bageiras, when Mario Sergio took over his grandfather Fausto's parcels in 1989 to start making his own wine. Now the estate has grown into one of the references for sparkling wines in Portugal and traditional Bairrada wine. This Fogueira Rosé can be described as a rather full and firm, but also elegant wine, with a fruity freshness and full-bodied taste with long finish.
